Helio

Designed by Jehs+Laub

Helio by Jehs+Laub is an elegant occasional table line, accenting any space with unique artistic details. Perspective is everything with Helio, serving an infinite optical illusion with three slim steel legs mimicking architectural pillars. The sleek design complements a variety of styles with a wide range of finish options to add an eye-catching design element to any space.

This three-piece table line features complementary heights for nesting. Group the three tables together or let Helio stand alone to accent any space with a beautiful architectural aesthetic.

Helio is constructed of 1/4" solid steel tops with 5/8" diameter tubular steel legs. The uniquely clean connection of the tubular steel legs and the solid steel top offer sturdy durability with a crisp aesthetic. The classic design complements a variety of spaces and indiscriminately harmonizes with any interior. Offered in a beautiful range of powder coat colors, Helio is a functional and design-driven addition to any occasional application.
