Span

Combine an air of mystery with an ultra-minimalist aesthetic, and you have Span. This super slim, wood conference table from Davis is able to support lengths up to 144 inches on just four legs.

Span is one table that dares to push the limits of design and engineering.

Span can accommodate users that come to the table with a simple agenda or an armload of materials with grace and simplicity. Surface material options range from elegant wood veneers to a sleek and durable white acrylic, offering designers a wide array of aesthetics.

From small meeting spaces to formal boardrooms, Span is an ideal solution.
